Watkins-Taylor Wedding in Philadelphia.

A beautiful wedding took place in Philadelphia Tuesday evening, when Miss Romaine Taylor and Mr. Francis Benjamin Watkins, son of Mrs. Margaret Watkins of this city, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Clarence Taylor.

Rev. Dr. William Tracy performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, wore a gown of lustrous ivory white satin, with a court train trimmed with duchess lace.

Her long tulle veil was held with a Normandy cap of lace and orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of orchids and valley lilies.

Miss Ruth Watkins of this city, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant, and she wore a lovely gown of gold chiffon taffeta made in the style of 1880, with a high waist line and a short, full skirt. Her bouquet was of old-fashioned posies.

Mrs. Watkins, the bridegroom's mother, wore a handsome gown of black satin veiled in black net trimmed with jet.

Mr. Russell Taylor was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins will reside in Montreal after November 1.
